SADDLE BROOK, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 14, 2002--

Sal Lifrieri, a Counterterrorism Expert, Will Focus on Homeland Security Market

Diversified Security Solutions, Inc. (AMEX:DVS), a single-source end-to-end provider of integrated security systems, announced today the appointment of Sal Lifrieri, who served under New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani as director of Security and Intelligence Operations for the Office of Emergency Management, as the Company's executive vice president.

"Sal's expertise in the management of security, intelligence, countersurveillance operations and counterterrorism will be a valuable asset to the Company at a time when we are focusing on growth in multiple markets related to Homeland Security," stated Irv Witcosky, president of Diversified Security Solutions. "This is a newly created executive position at Diversified Security Solutions and Sal will play a key role in developing new business for the Company."

Mr. Lifrieri headed New York City's Emergency Management Agency's intelligence operations from January 1997 to January 2001. He is a highly decorated 20-year veteran of the New York Police Department and the founder of Protective Consultants Inc., a security consulting firm based in White Plains, N.Y.
